

WE ARE offering some very desirable BAR-GAINS in Ladies' and Gents' FINE WATCHES.

You will make a mistake if you buy a Watch without seeing us.

This is a class of goods in which we acknowledge no superiors.

We buy largely in all the American factories and obtain all the discounts to be had by any one, and have the advantage over most dealers in this section of the country to the extent of our discounts given for quantity, and an advantage over large city dealers in the smallness (comparatively) of our business expenses.

We show everything new in the watch industry, and take especial care that goods do not accumulate on our hands till they become undesirable stock.

Respectfully,

O. E. CURTIS & CO..

The Centennial Celebration.

The centennial of the American Revolution was celebrated in a fitting manner at the tabernacle last night in the presence of between 500 and 600 people. The stage was prettily decorated with flowers, and at the rear were the figures "1785." Dr. Rash's "Essay on the Effects of Ardent Spirits on the Human Mind and Body," published over 100 years ago, led Dr. Clark, of New York, to form the first temperance society, and Dr. Dorchester suggested the idea of celebrating the inauguration of the war on Alcohol on the 24th day of September of each year. The celebration of last night was under the auspices of the local W. C. T. U. Mrs. Stafford having arranged the programme which was observed as published in last evening's edition. Addresses were delivered by Rev. D. Q. Wright, of Ann Arbor, Mich.; Elder Jackson, of Springfield; Rev. Wilder, Stevens, Vought, Holmes and Newcomer; A. V. Smith and Miss Jennie McDaniel reading the Dr. Rush essay. Recitations were given by Marian Dill, Lulu Crosthwait, Annie Roberts, Irene Armstrong, Mary Beard, Myrtle Morgan, Mattie Drobisch, and Tom Pitner. The singing was conducted by D. L. Bunn.

The Palace Hotel Again.

There was another change in the management of the Palace Hotel to-day. Davis, the owner of the building, the consideration being $3500. Mr. Laux retains the saloon outfit which may be closed Nov. 1st. Mr. Davis and family will move into the hotel, and Mr. Davis will manage the establishment.

Another League Club Comed.

To-day Manager Shilling completed arrangements with the Philadelphia base ball club, on its way from Detroit to St. Louis, to stop off at Decatur on Monday next, Sept. 28th, and give an exhibition game with the old Decatur Reds at the Park. The Philadelphia stand third in the race for the championship, and with the Reds will give our people a fine entertainment. The Decatur club will be given a battery by the Philadelphia club—Nolan, pitcher, and Chick, catcher; also a third baseman, Seigel, all league players that travel with the club. The remainder of the Decatur club will include Leo Hall, first base; Land, second base; Shilling, left field; Lon Bickes, right field; Conley, center field, Montag, short stop. The game will come off at the Park Monday afternoon. Admission 35 cents.

The baby show.

During the hospital fair the management will have a baby show, Friday, Oct. 21, being set apart for this feature of the fair. A prize will be offered for the finest baby 3 years of age or under, and a similar one for the finest girl of the same age. Now bring out your babies; they are all pretty and sweet, of course, and every one will deserve a prize, whether he or she obtains it or not. Mrs. V. G. Hatch will have charge of the baby show.

Promoted.

This morning A. O. Boyd was promoted from the Decatur office to a member of the railway mail service between Quincy and Lafayette, taking the place of Robert Jordan, of Mattoon. Al got his commission this morning and at noon he went aboard the mail car to handle mail and sacks. It may be well enough to state in this connection, to avoid a stampede, that there is no vacancy at the Decatur post office, and that so far as known the present force is a fixture.

The injured miner.

Unfortunately Larry Leonard, the coal miner injured by the fall of the cage at Natick mine, a distance of 175 feet, is under the care of Dr. Cheneveth at St. Mary's Hospital. His condition to-day is not so hopeful and he occasions some alarm. His pulse is frequent and his breathing is rapid. The symptoms are all bad. He is a single man, aged 35 years.

Amusements.

There has been a good sale of reserved seats for Den Thompson, who appears at the Opera House to-morrow night in Joshua Whitcomb, supported by a strong company. He always pleases the people. See him.

Tuesday evening will appear Catherine Lewis and her company in the new play, "Gladys," in which place Miss Lewis appears in exciting songs and dances. Secure seats. Popular prices.

YESTERDAY Miss Mary Nidermeyer was in receipt of a letter from a lady friend at Belleville, who writes that the German people are very glad that Rev. Wm. Schoenig is to be their pastor, and added that one lady there was found crying because her husband was sent by the conference to the Quincy district, and that another lady was crying because her husband didn't get the appointment.

THE Philadelphia league club will play ball with the Reds Monday afternoon at the Park. Mr. Shilling will endeavor to get two league clubs to visit Decatur before the close of the season and give an exhibition game.

FRANK CURRAN has leased the old Western House, on the Levee, formerly kept by D. E. Yates, and is now in possession. He has repainted and fitted up the place in fine style, and says he will conduct a first-class hotel.

THE Rev. James Shaw, of Illinois conference, having raised nearly $4,000 last year for the worst ministers of the conference, has been continued in the agency by the bishop, at the request of the conference, for another year, and will make Bloomington his home as before.

THE office of A. E. Shrader, general traffic manager for the Illinois Midland railway company, has been removed from Decatur to Decatur. Mr. Shrader is in the city, accompanied by his chief clerk, Oscar Shrader.

ROBERTA GERTZ is again at liberty. She was sent to jail by Justice Eymann because she couldn't pay fine. A friend came to the front and liquidated the amount.

A Return Game.

The Decatur Barbers' base ball club will go to Bloomington, on Monday next, to play a return game with their brethren of the razor, who came to Decatur some weeks ago and were "done up" by a score of 8 to 2. Our boys hope to win this time. The visiting Decatur nine will comprise Gus Scherz, catcher; J. W. Chronister, pitcher; C. Bushong, short stop; Billy Emmert, third base; Henry Mack, second base; W. McCalin, first base; A. T. Grist, right field; Henry Goodman, center field; Walter Liston, left field. Substitutes, in case of sudden death or accidents, Oh. Beder, J. W. Clymer, John Satter and John Ashley. The members of the club will wear their handsome uniforms.

$5,000 for One Bridge.

At the last meeting of the Shelby county board of supervisors, $10,372.50 was appropriated for building and repairing bridges; $5,000 of the amount is for one bridge alone across the Okaw river. The Shelby county board are not stingy in the matter of giving the country people safe bridges. The Macon county board, at its recent session, refused to do the square thing with reference to the Willow Ford bridge. The commissioners let the contract for $3,300, and asked the board to appropriate that amount, but they refused to do more than to say that they would give $2,000, with the understanding that the commissioners were to ask for no more money. Supervisor Freeman endeavored to induce the board to allow the commissioners to use $2,000, having out the clause about not demanding more money. However, the commissioners will go ahead and have the bridge put in proper shape under the contract, and it is held that the county will have to pay the bill.

Had to Pay the Bet.

A civil suit growing out of an election bet made last fall has just been settled in the circuit court at Lincoln. George W. Chowning, of Lincoln, was speculating in politics during the campaign, last autumn, by selling buggies for $300 in case Cleveland was elected and nothing if Blaine was elected. Francis Keys and Col. R. M. Hough, two enthusiastic members of the g. o. p., concluded to buy a buggy on those terms. The money was borrowed at the bank and put up in Dustin's bank, and note given for the amount signed by Keys and Hough. When it was found that Cleveland was elected Keys was given the carriage and Chowning took in his $300. The note fell due and Hough refused to pay any part of the note. Keys paid the note off and brought suit for $150, the value of half the note, before Justice Dillehunt. Judge Dillehunt held for the amount, was rendered and appealed the case to the circuit court. The jury retired and soon rendered a verdict for the plaintiff, Keys for the sum of $150.

Garlands.

The Garland has long held high rank among stoves, and it is constantly being improved. The latest effort of the manufacturer is the "Art Garland," a square base-burner for hard coal, and to say that it tops all previous efforts of the company, in appearance as well as utility. The great desideratum of a circular fire basket in a square stove has been reached, while in the matter of looks it is a perfect piece of art. Its ornamentation is elaborate without being gaudy, and it is so constructed as to show the greatest possible amount of light, which adds so much to the cheerfulness of a room. Ferguson & Dillehunt sell this splendid stove, as well as a full line of Garland, including furnaces and ranges. Give them a call. See change of advertisement in another column.

Mr. and Mrs. Cramp, of Macon, were tendered a reception last evening at the home of Col. and Mrs. John Reed, which was largely attended. Among those who called to pay their respects to the couple were many of the friends of the West, a couple who have donated so generously to the institution and to kindred agencies of good. Mr. and Mrs. Cramp attended chapel exercises at the Wesleyan yesterday, and while they were present a set of resolutions were adopted by the students expressing of the respect in which they were held, and several complimentary speeches were made by members of the faculty and others—Bloomington Pantagraph, 25th.

Danley's Pianos.

At Lincoln, yesterday, the grand jury returned into court nineteen indictments against James H. Danley, the defunct music dealer. Eighteen charged him with conducting on A. B. Roberts about $10,000 worth of fictitious notes. The other one charged him with forging a note and mortgage. Willey Connell was indicted for assault with intent to murder, and Kate Hardin, the DeWitt county horse thief, was indicted for forgery.

The Chicago Grain Market.

The following were the closing quotations in Chicago at noon to-day:

Wheat—85 Sept.; 85 1/2 Oct.; 87 1/2 Nov.; 90 1/2 May.

Corn—42 1/2 Sept.; 41 1/2 Oct.; 38 1/2 Nov.; 37 1/2 May.

MAN ABOUT TOWN.

It is noticed that Lawyer Cousins simply smiles when that little episode at Harry Egan's store is mentioned.

Some of the Democrats are really alarmed about the claims of the country Bourbons, who want to capture the Decatur postoffice. They say "what do the country-jakes want, anyhow? Haven't they got full swing at the village postoffice?" But the town fellows forget that the village officers don't bring any returns worth speaking of, except what may be gained by concentration of trade at some country store. It is apparent at this writing that the friends of Mr. Williams, Col. Lookwood, J. W. Taorahill and Jesse Lookhart intend to keep up the fight, and go down a-kicking if they do get left.

Elder Jackson and Rev. Holmes say they hope to reap a large harvest of converts at the revival at the African Methodist church. Financially the camp meeting was a big success, and the receipts were far above their expectations; but spiritually the result was a disappointment. However, there was a hope in spirit of religious awakening manifested, and the brethren will commence their work of bringing sinners to the mourner's bench to-night. They say with the hope of the Lord, where they can "get close to the people." The revival will be kept up many weeks.

The police tell me the local gamblers have gone out of business. They have deserted their old haunts, and are no more hidden behind barrels and locked doors. Perhaps business is dull.

There is quite a number of vacant dwellings in different parts of the city, but they will fill up during the coming months. Those who built houses of their own the past summer are vacating tenement property, to save the constant drain of paying rent.

Manager Hatch has fewer complaints about the telephone service, but if he would please his patrons (especially, he will immediately proceed to complete and have printed a new telephone directory. The present one has grown so ancient that they have whiskers and other things on them.

Charles Laux tells me that he is thinking of closing up the Palace Hotel saloon, for the reason that it doesn't pay to keep it open. The license will expire Nov. 1st, after which date the saloon will probably be closed.

May Go West.

It is stated that Zach Broughn, of Warrensburg, has about decided to sell his interest in Pollywog and remove to Nebraska to run a cattle ranch. He owns about 2,000 acres of land in Illinois and Austin townships, and rumor has it that since the Ritchies captured the Warrensburg postoffice the village has no further charms for him. Mr. B. will probably effect a trade with a Peoria man who owns the Nebraska ranch.

At the residence of the bride's parents, in Whitmore township, Sept. 24th, by Justice C. L. Gorton, Mr. Henry Dillehunt and Miss Alice Matthews, daughter of Henry Matthews.

A Brighter Outlook.

Paymaster Sheppard, of the Washab road, allowed but three weeks to pass between his pay trips. The last trip he paid for July. He now announces it as his intention to more frequently repeat these visits until the back pay is paid up, and should the fairly prosperous condition of business continue, nothing need prevent his so doing, his superior officers state.

A New Pastor for Decatur.

NORRIS, LL, Sept. 24—Rev. J. D. Roth, pastor of the Lutheran church here, has accepted a call from the English Lutheran church of Decatur, Ill., and will leave at once for his new charge. The Decatur church is without a house of worship, but steps will be taken immediately to erect one that will be an ornament to the city. One member has donated a lot, for which he has recently been offered $7,000, on condition that a church is erected thereon within a year, and some $2,000 have been pledged. In the work before them the Decatur church will find an earnest helper in Mr. Roth, whose departure from here will be greatly regretted.

Dodge-Bowthorn.

At the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. S. Bosworth, on the evening of the 11th inst., at Canton, Mississippi, by Rev. H. R. Singleton, Mr. B. F. Dodeon, of Decatur, Ill., and Miss Annie May Bosworth, of this city. They left on the first train for their future home.
